GARRY LANDRETH

DEEPER ISSUES IN CHILD-CENTERED PLAY
THERAPY

Don't Miss this Chance to hear the Amazing Dr. Landreth in person as he spends two days diving into Child Centered Play Therapy and how to use it with many complicated issues.

Dr. Landreth is an internationally recognized speaker and expert in Play Therapy, has authored numerous books and articles on Play Therapy including "Play Therapy-the Art of the Relationship".

This interactive and exploratory workshop will focus on a variety of seldom examined issues that emerge in play therapy relationships: play therapy as a process of living out beliefs about a child rather than applying techniques, methods or skills; the play therapist as a person of commitment and passion; expectancy versus expectations; intangibles that impact possibilities and progress in play therapy; understanding the sequence of inner emotional steps that precede behavioral change and returning responsibility to children.

In this workshop, a way of Being With a child will be explored that touches the inner person of the child that is waiting to come forth and be experienced. This workshop will challenge you to look within and to examine your core beliefs about children and the therapeutic process.

Workshop activities will include experiential learning about yourself, videos of Dr. Landreth's play therapy sessions, and the art expressions of a child who was dying.
